

Colloquium

Aspects of Leadership in the Ancient World

Rethymnon, Institute of Mediterranean Studies (IMS/FORTH)

June 7-8, 2018

Contact:

Melina Tamiolaki (tamiolaki@uoc.gr)

Sponsored by:

The Special Account of Research of the University of Crete
The Faculty of Philosophy of the University of Crete

Graphic design: Anna Arkoulaki - University of Crete

PROGRAMME

	Thursday, June 7
	Greeting (Konstantinos Spanoudakis , Vice-Rector, University of Crete) Opening remarks (Melina Tamiolaki , University of Crete)
	First Session: Leadership in ancient Greece Chair: Konstantina Georgiadi (IMS/FORTH)
10.00-10.45	Marc Domingo Gygax (Princeton University) Benefaction and Leadership in the Ancient Greek World
10.45-11.30	Zoe Stamatopoulou (Washington University in St. Louis) Archaic Greek Tyrants as paradigms of Leadership in Plutarch
11.30-12.15	Mallory Monaco Caterine (Tulane University) Teaching Ethical Leadership through Greek Literature: Ancient and Modern Pedagogies
12.15-14.00	Lunch Break
	Second Session: Leadership in the Roman World and Modern Times Chair: Apostolos Delis (IMS/FORTH)
17.00-17.45	Jonathan Zarecki (The University of North Carolina-Greensboro) Cicero, Pompey, and the Limits of Leadership
17.45-18.30	Georgios Vassiliades (University of Cyprus and University of Crete) Ciceronian Aspects of Leadership in Livy's Ab Vrbe Condita
18.30-19.15	Norman Sandridge (Howard University and the Center for Hellenic Studies) Gendered Mentorship Across Cultures: Becoming a Leader Homer's Odyssey and Disney's Moana

20.00 Colloquium Dinner

Friday, June 8

 la i	1 100 4	ч.	-	-	-	-		10
 ш		1	-	_	 	8	ш	ш

Leadership outside Greece

Chair: Marinos Sariyannis (IMS/FORTH)

10.00-10.45 Juan Carlos Moreno García (CNRS, France)
 Leadership in the Rural World: Village Chiefs, Potentates and Informal Networks of Authority in Pharaonic Egypt
 10.45-11.30 Irene Madreiter (University of Innsbruck)

Ideal Leadership in First Millenium Mesopotamia and its Critics

11.30-12.15 Reza Zarghamee (University of St. Andrews)

The Achaemenid King as Priest and Savior

12.15-12.30 Kostas Vlassopoulos (University of Crete)

Concluding Remarks