

Brepols Publishers is a medium-sized international academic publisher, specializing in research for the humanities. We publish historical sources and academic research in areas such as history, patristics, philology, archaeology, and art history, and our portfolio encompasses books, journals, and reference works, which are made available in both print and digital formats, and as traditional and open-access publications. Our broad range of publications are released under our different imprints: Brepols (history); Corpus Christianorum (text editions); Harvey Miller (art history); and BREPOLiS (online databases). Story Publishers caters to legal professionals with books and training.

Brepols reaches a global clientele consisting of specialized libraries, academic institutions, and individuals. Our publishing house has its headquarters in the historic Begijnhof of Turnhout (BE) and we also have an office in Thessaloniki (GR), together with colleagues in France, the UK, and the USA. More information can be found at www.brepols.net.

To strengthen its team in Thessaloniki (Pylaia) and contribute to its dynamic business plan, Brepols is seeking a

Bibliographer

for l'Année Philologique

The reference bibliography for academic publications relating to Ancient Greek and Roman Civilization

Key responsibilities:

- Cataloguing scholarly works related to Ancient Greek and Roman Civilization and other humanities fields.
- Tasks include preparing bibliographic records, assigning keywords, and writing abstracts.
- Collaboration with specialists both abroad and in-house.

What to expect:

- An interesting job in a unique cultural, scholarly, and technological environment.
- Joining a growing and dynamic organization of a renowned publisher with worldwide recognition in the academic world

Interested?

Please send your CV and a letter of motivation to Paschalis Tsomakas (Paschalis.Tsomakas@brepols.net) by 15/01/2024. You can be assured of discretion and a prompt response.

Profile:

Qualifications

- Relevant master's degree in Classics (classical history, philology, archaeology, etc.).

Language Skills

- Very good command of French and English (written and spoken); knowledge of German and/or an East European language is advantageous.

Knowledge and Experience

- Broad knowledge of European history and cultures, familiarity with academic databases.
- Ability to manage and develop an international network of contributors and research partners.
- Project management skills and the ability to supervise external contributors.

Personal Attributes

- Ability to work accurately and methodically under pressure.
- Effective teamwork skills.
- Editorial experience or proofreading skills are considered advantageous.