

Middle Grade Doctor in Emergency Medicine

North London, UK

Synergy Medical, a 2016 NHS awarded supplier, is excited to be holding interviews for international doctors who are already in the UK or are planning to make a move this year. We are looking for a Trust Doctor in Emergency Medicine. If you are looking for a new professional adventure and want to hear about the career opportunities we can offer, this is where it starts!

About the Hospital

Our client is one of the largest acute trusts in the country and the biggest provider of acute healthcare services in NHS North East London and the City (NELC). Their dedicated workforce of 6,500 staff and volunteers serve our local population of around 750,000, from a wide range of social and ethnic groups.

They have excellent opportunities for Registrars to join the Emergency Medicine Department. Applications are welcome from both UK and Non-UK based doctors. There are 2 levels of Registrar, Tier 2 Registrars and Tier 1 Senior Registrar. We recruit into both grades depending on the experience of the candidates and these posts are for a period of either 6 to 12 months with a prospect further extensions of contracts by mutual agreement and possible permanency.

These posts will be mainly stationed at the emergency departments of the main hospitals; however they can also offer rotations between Emergency Medicine, Medical Assessment Unit's, Medical Ambulatory Units and Anaesthesia as well as rotations between adult and paediatric emergency medicine. For candidates who opt for rotational posts this will be organised according to the candidate's preference.

The training they provide includes shop floor management of trauma, acute medical, surgical, psychiatry and paediatric cases. All Training will be provided by Emergency Medicine Consultant, Paediatric Emergency Medicine Consultant and Acute Medical Consultants. If you want high quality training that will enable you to fulfil the requirements for the acute care common stem (ACCS) to enable you to pursue a career in Emergency Medicine, Anaesthesia or Acute Medicine while gaining practical hands on experience in patient care in a supportive and team working environment, their Emergency Medicine Departments are likely to be the place for you to come and train.

They pride themselves on the fact that numerous employees of this post have now obtained training numbers and several of them are planning on re-joining the team as Consultants. There is a dynamic teaching programme as well as mentoring and careers advice. The trust allocates adequate time and financial support to enable their doctors to attend any course the post-holder feels may be relevant to progressing their career.
