PUSH THE BOUNDARIES OF A CAREER IN MARKETING RESEARCH

RESEARCH TRAINEE OPPORTUNITY

- If you hold a degree in Social Sciences or Marketing
- If you have a spirit of curiosity and enjoy exploration and creativity in your daily work
- If you have strong verbal and writing communication skills in both English and Greek
- If you envisage being able to make a real difference in blue-chip clients' businesses
- If you look for an intellectually challenging job that will stretch your thinking processes
- If you share our passion for delivering fresh insights in consumer behaviour based on state-of-the-art techniques

You might well relish working in a friendly and stimulating environment that supports individual career development.

All applications will be treated as strictly confidential. Relevant experience and familiarity with AI are not prerequisites but will be appreciated.
