

Does this sound like the creative, tech-savvy you?

Have you turned your passion for new technologies into a career? Can you easily grasp business goals and transform them digitally into powerful, engaging storytelling? Do you keep up with the latest design tools and trends? Do you have an eye for detail and a constant drive for excellence? If yes, then you are about to be called for an interview and hopefully join our team at Boussias Communications as

JUNIOR WEB DESIGNER

Your role

- Work closely with the New Media Project Leader and participate in business projects
- Design and implement user interfaces for websites
- Create html newsletters and track user engagement
- Create online graphic elements for corporate events and awards
- Implement and monitor the successful delivery of online advertising campaigns (ad operations trafficking)
- Monitor market and competition to spot trends and develop new ideas

Requirements

Your skills:

- Web authoring with Dreamweaver
- Hand-coding CSS / HTML
- Light JavaScript / Ajax skills

Desirable skills:

- graphic design, typography and illustration skills
- Illustrator, Photoshop
- Knowledge of Video authoring /editing software

Your competencies & values:

- Commitment to the team's goals
- Open communication, empathy and honest feedback
- Creative problem solving

- Efficient time management
- Enthusiasm to learn, grow and excel

Benefits

What's in it for you:

- A fast-paced work environment at a leading, trend-setting company with pioneer products
- A new media team that aims at making a difference
- Remuneration according to your skills and experience
- Ongoing learning opportunities and free participation in Boussias events / conferences

boussias communications

To apply for this position click the following link

<http://boussias-communications.workable.com>